

Student Alumni Profile

Nina Shuang
Accountant, Audit Division
Deloitte

Nina is a Master of Commerce & Master of Logistics Management graduate from the University of Sydney.

Nina came to Performance English to study her Professional Year - Accounting in March 2009.

She studied in the full time track and completed a 12 week full time internship at a global airline based in their Sydney office.

During her program and internship Nina developed her interview and presentation skills and applied for a job in the Deloitte China Program. She was 1 of 200 candidates that was given an initial interview from thousands of applicants. She underwent 3 rounds of interviews before she secured her final job offer.

The recruitment process included a group interview of 10 candidates where the group was assigned a case study task and observed by members of the Deloitte Human Capital team as they worked their way through the task and gave individual presentations to the group at the end of the session.

Nina will spend her first 2 years with Deloitte in Shenzhen before being seconded back to Deloitte Australia.

Student Commentary

“I really enjoyed the group discussions and role plays at Performance English. During this practice I improved my teamwork, presentation skills and critical thinking. I’ve also made many good friends and I believe we’ll be good friends for the rest of my life.”

“The curriculum design at Performance English is very practical. We have gained a competitive advantage from our learning and practice of professional business communication, teamwork skills, time management and risk management skills. All of us are more professional now.”
